

RÅDVIKEN

Steel, Shrilk

Shrilk is a new, completely biodegradable bioplastic material which is made from the material found in shrimp shells and forming a laminate with silk fibroin protein. It's flexible yet stronger than aluminum surface is very light, thus providing the perfect new shell for the RÅDVIKEN chair.

Something fishy is going on.

